SAN DIEGO PUBLIC LIBRARY SCREENS A PREVIEW OF PBS' AMERICAN EXPERIENCE SERIES "WE SHALL REMAIN"

Project establishes Native history as an essential part of American history

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library and libraries across the country are hosting preview screenings of We Shall Remain, produced by PBS' award-winning series, American Experience. The short clips are excerpted from the five-part television series that shows how Native peoples valiantly resisted expulsion from their lands and fought the extinction of their culture. San Diego Public Library will screen the preview clip at 6:30 PM on Wednesday, April 8, in the third floor auditorium of the Central Library, located at 820 E Street in downtown San Diego. Linda Rose Locklear, Professor, American Indian Studies & American Studies/Sociology at Palomar College will lead a discussion after the screening. This event is FREE to the public.

The complete series traces events — from the Wampanoags of New England, who in the 1600s used their alliance with the English to weaken rival tribes, to the bold new leaders of the 1970s who harnessed the momentum of the civil rights movement to forge a pan-Indian identity — spanning four centuries. PBS' We Shall Remain represents an unprecedented collaboration between Native and non-Native filmmakers and involves Native advisors and scholars at all levels of the project.
